

The Commission should take no action that in any way effects the standing of the current Indiana Telephone Privacy law, My life has been so much more peaceful without the 3-5 nightly calls from telephone peddlers. I was to the point before the act of having my phones removed. If this act is nullified by your actions, I will have no choice but to do so, I will not go back to the constant interruption of my life by these bloodsuckers.